

Frederick Milton McBride ( - 14 Sep 1930)

---

McBride, Frederick Milton. Suddenly on Sunday, September 14, 1930, at Vineland, N.J., Frederick Milton McBride, 19 years old, of 2804 14th st. n.w. Funeral from the S.H. Hines funeral parlors, 14th and Harvard sts. N.w., Wednesday, September 17, at 2 p.m. Friends invited.

The Evening Star, September 15, 1930, p. 4

Washington Boy Dies in Accident

Automobile Reported to Have Turned Over After Crash in New Jersey

Frederick Milton McBride, 19 years old, son of Mrs. Jlia D. Hill of the Savoy Apartments, this city, died in a hospital in Vineland, N.J., yesterday from injuries sustained in an automobile accident near there Saturday, according to word received here.

The funeral services are to be held at S.H. Hines Co. funeral home, 2901 Fourteenth street, Wednesday, it is announced. Further details of the funeral arrangements are to be completed following the arrival of the young man's mother, Mrs. Hill, here this afternoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Robb of the Rochambeau Apartments an aunt of McBride, and his cousin, Miss Madge DeGrummond, also were injured in the accident, the latter seriously. Miss DeGrummond is said to have sustained a fracture of the law, lacerations and possible internal injuries, while Mrs. Robb suffered lacerations of the tongue and a possible fracture of the knee. Miss DeGrummond was on her way to college at Boston.

He automobile in which the three were riding with McBride driving is said to have turned over after striking another automobile.