Funeral of Mrs. McGuirk

The funeral of Mrs. Laura McGuirk, whose death resulted from a fall from the fourth story of Providence Hospital Saturday, took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from her late home, 225 12th street southwest. Her body was subsequently cremated at Undertaker Lee's crematory. There was no disfigurement of the face, and no one could tell by the peaceful expression of the countenance of the dead woman as she lay in the casket that she had met a violent death.
