Mrs. Barbara McIntire Dies of Long Illness

Resident of District for Half Century Was Native of Virginia

Mrs. Barbara McIntire, 75, a resident of Washington for more than half a century, died yesterday in Gallinger Hospital after a long illness.

Born in Virginia, she came to Washington at the age of 18, and for many years was an active member of the Wilson Memorial M.E. Church.

Mrs. McIntire, who lived at 753 Twelfth street S.E., is survived by four sons, Irving McIntire, Alexandria, Va.; Louise McIntire, Riverdale, Md., and David and Everett McIntire, both of Washington and a daughter, Miss Blanche McIntire, also of this city. One other son, Fred, was drowned recently at Seaside, Md. She leaves also a brother, Jerome B. Robinson, and a sister, Mrs. Lucy Carrico.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Deal's parlors, 816 H street N.E. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.
