

John M. Meridith

(- 22 Feb 1928)

The Evening Star, February 23, 1928, p. 9

J.M. Meredith Dies

Heart Attack Fatal to Former Capitol Employee

John M. Meredith, 70 years old, a filling station manager for the Penn Oil Co's station at Twenty-second and M street, yesterday. Death was attributed to heart disease. He was found dead in his room after an illness of several days.

A sister, Mrs. William Pitney of Brooklyn, N.Y. was notified of his death.