

Virginia Ann Miller

(- 31 Mar 1922)

Miller. Friday, March 31, 1922, at George Washington University Hospital, Virginia Ann, widow of Capt. George W. Miller, in the 87th year of her age. Funeral services at John R. Wright's funeral parlor, 1337 10th st. n.w., Monday at 2 p.m. Interment Congressional cemetery.

The Evening Star, April 1, 1922, p. 7

Mrs. V.A. Miller Dies

Was Eighty-Six Years of Age and Lifelong Resident of District

Mrs. Virginia A. Miller, daughter of the late Caroline and Henry Selby of East Washington and widow of the late Capt. George W. Miller, died at noon yesterday at George Washington University Hospital, after an illness of several weeks.

She was eighty-six years old and a lifelong resident of the District. She is survived by two daughters and three sons, grandsons and great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held from Wright's chapel at 2 o'clock Monday. Interment at Congressional cemetery.