

John H. Mills

(- 11 Sep 1911)

Mills. On Monday, September 11, 1911 at 4 p.m. in Providence Hospital, John H Mills, beloved husband of Laura Boose Mills in the 74th year of his age. Funeral from Scott's undertaking establishment, 409 8th street s.e., Wednesday, September 13 at 2 p.m. Relatives and friends invited.

The Evening Star, September 12, 1911, p. 4

Services Tomorrow Afternoon Under Auspices of Masons

Funeral services for Capt. John H. Mills, who died yesterday afternoon at Providence Hospital, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the undertaking establishment of William H. Scott, 409 8th street southeast, under the auspices of Anacostia Lodge of Masons. The body will be interred in Congressional cemetery.

Capt. Mills was a lifelong resident of this city. He was seventy-four years old. For a number of years he conducted a type foundry. For the last thirteen years he was associated with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

He would have celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage October 10. Death was the result of stomach trouble. His wife and one son, Charles O. Mills, survive him.

The Evening Star, September 13, 1911

Capt. John H. Mills Buried

The body of Capt. John H. Mills, who died yesterday at the Providence Hospital, was buried with Masonic honors this afternoon in the Congressional cemetery. A delegation from Anacostia Masonic Lodge conducted the services which were held at 2 o'clock in the undertaking establishment of William H. Scott at 409 8th street s.e.