C.J. Montgomery, 79, Dies; Was Active in Fraternal Societies

Charles J. Montgomery, 79, retired Naval Gun Factory machinist and an active member of fraternal organizations here, died Wednesday at Providence Hospital. He lived at 310 Fifteenth street S.E.

Mr. Montgomery had been in failing health, his family said, since his 4-year-old great grandson, Johnnie Stibli, died under the wheels of a truck on March 27 at Seventeenth street and Massachusetts avenue S.E.

A lifelong resident of Washington, Mr. Montgomery attended St. Peter's Parochial School. During his more than 30 years' Government service he was first employed at St. Elizabeths Hospital and then at the Naval Gun Factory. He retired 15 years ago.

Mr. Montgomery was a charter member of Carroll Council No. 377, Knights of Columbus and was grand knight of the council when it celebrated its golden jubilee in 1948. He also belonged to Washington General Assembly, Fourth Degree, K. of C., and the Order of the Alhambra. A parishioner of the Holy Comforter Church, he was a member of the Holy Name Society there and the Manresa Retreat League.

An active members of the Elks Lodge No. 15 here, he had formerly served a number of years as chaplain of that organization.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Spalding of the Fifteenth street address; a brother, William R. Montgomery, 1245 U street S.E., and two sisters, Mrs. Mary E. Heil of Baltimore, and Mrs. Anna Deal of North Beach. Five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a.m. tomorrow at the Holy Comforter Church. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.
