Fund for Mrs. James A. Moore

Maj. Richard Sylvester, superintendent of police, has arranged to turn over to Mrs. Moore, widow of Lieut. James A. Moore, $922.75, representing the proceeds of the revolver contest and the donations by friends of the late lieutenant. The contributions amounted to $488.50. The police officials are highly gratified at the showing made by the friends of the late lieutenant. The money will be applied to reducing the loan on the home of the Moore family, being about one-half of the indebtedness.
