

John Patrick Morgan

(- 8 Jun 1927)

Morgan. Suddenly, June 8, 1927, John Patrick Morgan. Remains resting at H. Padgett's funeral parlors, 730 11th st. s.e. Funeral (strictly private) Friday, June 10, at 10:30 a.m.

The Evening Star, June 8, 1927, p. 4

Uses Mirror In Suicide

Patrick Morgan, Retired Navy Yard Employee, Kills Himself

Using a mirror to direct his aim, Patrick Morgan, 66 year old, former sailor and a retired civilian employe of the navy yard, shot and killed himself eary this morning in his room at 425 Seventh street. Dr. J. Ramsay Nevitt, the coroner, issued a certificate of suicide.

Moran had been in ill health for several years, police were told, and was badly injured in an automobile accident in Southeast Washington several months ago. He was said to have made a previous attempt to end his life. He has a son in this city.