Deceased Citizens

On Tuesday evening Dr. Owen Munson, formerly a well-known dentist, and for many years a resident of this city, died at his residence, No. 442 Ninth street, near G. During the war he served as surgeon of the 108th New York volunteers, and at its close accepted a position as a clerk in the General Land Office, which he held at the time of his death. He was the owner of a valuable tract of timber land and saw mill in Alabama, which was totally devastated during the war by the rebels; his loss being about $30,000. He was one of the leading members of the Fourth Presbyterian church, and the Young Men's Christian Association, (who passed last night, at a special meeting, resolutions of condolence,) and Columbia Lodge No. 3, of Masons. The funeral is taken place this afternoon, being attended by Columbia Lodge of Masons and many friends.
