Hit By Auto, Child Dies In Hospital

Six-year-old Russell Murray, Jr., Ran In Front of Machine, Driver Claims

Russell Murray, jr., 6 years old, 501 E street southwest, knocked down by the automobile of Ernest A. Orndorff, 147 A street northeast, while running across the street near his home yesterday afternoon, died at Emergency Hospital early last night.

Orndorff, who took the injured child to the hospital and surrendered to the police, explained that the child appeared in front of his machine so suddenly that he was unable to prevent the accident.

The child was unconscious when he reached the hospital, and attending surgeons were unable to hold out the slightest hope for his recovery. Coroner Nevitt arranged to conduct an inquest at the morgue this afternoon. Nineteen inquests in traffic fatalities have been held since the beginning of the year.
