Funeral Tomorrow For Rev. J.B. North First Pastor of Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church Dies at Age of 80

Funeral Services for Rev. Joseph B. North, 80 years old, retired Presbyterian clergyman, first pastor of Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church, Anacostia, will be conducted in Schippert's funeral parlors, 2008 I street tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Rev. Dr. North died at the home of his son, Dr. J. Beverly North, 800 Fern street, Saturday night. He had been ill since having a stroke of paralysis eight months ago.

Rev. Dr. North was former moderator of the Washington City Presbytery. Following his pastorals here he was moderator of the New Castle, Dela. Presbytery, maintaining his headquarters at Snow Hill, Md. The latter Presbytery covered sections of Delaware and Maryland. He also held charges in Oklahoma and Kansas. He retired from the ministry some years ago, due to failing health.

He had been active in the Masonic fraternity and was a member of St. John's Lodge, F.A.A.M., for 32 years. He also was organizer and for many years a member of the Anacostia Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, and preached the annual sermon for the council each year for 20 years. Rev. Dr. North was a native of Baltimore.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary M. North; his son, Dr. J. Beverly North; a daughter, Mrs. Theodora North Filly of Canal Point, Fla.; a brother, Gustavus B. North of Laurel, Md., and sister, Miss Annie North of Baltimore.
