

Oak-Caw-Bu-Wis

(- 22 Mar 1866)

The Evening Star, March 23, 1866

Another Indian Dead

Shau-ba-wis, another of the Chippewa Indians, died yesterday at the quarters of the delegation, on B street, near 3d, of the black measles, from which the chief and another of the tribe had previously died. Dr. Dove is attending two others who have the disease, and pronounces them out of danger.