

Areliia Bell Parker

(– 10 May 1928)

Parker. On Thursday, May 10, 1928, Areliia Bell Parker, aged 59 years. Remains resting at her late residence, 1327 West Virginia ave. n.e. Funeral from Centennial Baptist Church, 7th and Eye sts. N.e., on Saturday, May 12, at 2:30 p.m. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment Congressional Cemetery. (Fredericksburg, Va., papers please copy.)

The Evening Star, May 10, 1928, p. 3

Injuries Fatal To Woman

Mrs. Areliia B. Parker, 1327 West Virginia avenue northeast, an employe of the Washington Terminal Co., died at Emergency Hospital early today from injuries received Tuesday night when she was struck by a locomotive near the New York Avenue Bridge.

Police knew nothing of the accident until after Mrs. Parker's death was reported by hospital authorities. Coroner Nevitt and the police today are conducting an investigation preliminary to an inquest at the morgue tomorrow morning. Mrs. Parker's skull was fractured and her back injured. She failed to rally after an operation was performed at the hospital.

The Evening Star, May 11, 1928, p. 6

Death Held Accidental

A verdict of accidental death was reported by a coroner's jury at an inquest held at the morgue today in the case of Mrs. Areliia Parker, 59, 1327 West Virginia avenue northeast, who was fatally injured Tuesday afternoon by a Baltimore & Ohio locomotive near the bridge over the tracks at New York avenue.

Mrs. Parker, in the employ of the Washington Terminal Co., was walking along the tracks in the company's yard when the accident happened. Funeral services will be conducted at Centennial Baptist Church, Seventh and I streets northeast, at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.