

Alexander A. Raff

( - 31 Mar 1903)

---

The Evening Star, April 1, 1903, p. 8

Sudden Death

Alexander A. Raff, Treasury Department Employee, Passes Away

Mr. Alexander A. Raff died suddenly last evening at his residence, 1013 C street southeast. He was at the dinner table when the summons came. The cause was uraemic poisoning.

The deceased was employed in the supervising architect's office, Treasury Department. His wife, two sons and a daughter survive him. He was fifty-four years old and formerly lived in Delhi, Delaware county, N.Y.