

Thompson Ragan (- 14 Feb 1874)

The Evening Star, February 16, 1874

Sudden Death

Mr. Thomas Reagan the well-known fish dealer in our city markets and a residence of South Washington, died very suddenly on Saturday (Feb. 14) night of a hemorrhage of the lungs. He leaves a wife and 5 children.

The Evening Star, February 17, 1874

The Funeral of the late Thomas Reagan, a prominent dealer in fish in the Washington markets for many years past, took place from his late residence, 8th street, south Washington, yesterday afternoon, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. The funeral exercises were conducted by Rev. Samuel Shannon, of Ryland chapel and the remains were interred in the Congressional cemetery.