Hans Raid, 69, Internal Revenue Agent 22 Years

Hans Raid, 69, an agent with the Internal Revenue Service for more than 22 years, died yesterday at District General Hospital after a long illness. His home was at 1444 Rhode Island avenue N.W.

Born in Bregens, Austria, Mr. Raid came to this country in the 1920s. He worked for eight years as a reporter for the Baltimore Correspondent before joining the Internal Revenue Service.

Mr. Raid, who had lived in Washington more than 18 years, devoted much of his free time to promoting Austro-German-American relations. He was an active member of the Concord Club and served for 10 years as secretary of the Schlarffia Club.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Raid, of the home address.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Hysong's funeral home, 1300 N street N.W. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.
