Inez N. Ransom, 71

Inez N. Ransom, 71, who conducted tours of historical sites with the Smithsonian Associates and the Maryland Historic Trust, died April 30 at the Malcolm Grow Medical Center at Andrews Air Force Base. She had cancer.

Mrs. Ransom, who lived in Forest Heights, was born in St. Louis. She moved here in 1957 and for about five years was an executive assistant with the U.S. Commissioner of Education, the National Gallery of Art and the Association of American Colleges.

She was a founder of the Congressional Cemetery Association and a member of the Woman's National Democratic Club. She did research for a number of historical associations.

Her husband, Clifford F. Ransom, a lieutenant colonel in the Air Force, died in 1953.

[NOTE: Her body was given to science, to be interred at a later date.]
