Drowns In Tidal Basin

Ernest Rawlett Falls From Wall While Fishing

Body Recovered

Ernest Rawlett, fourteen years old, of 304 Linworth street, was drowned near the cofferdam at the today basin at the foot of 14th street about noon today. He was fishing from the wall and fell in. The tide was very swift.

Frank H. Bean of 478 K street southwest saw him fall in and hurried in a boat to his rescue, but he had sunk before help arrived.

About two hours later the body was recovered by Charles M. Cumberland of 234 Linworth street and William Nightingale of 742 2nd street northwest.
