

Belle C. Rearden ( - 28 Nov 1913)

---

The Evening Star, December 3, 1913, p. 17

Wills Filed For Probate

Many to Share in Estate of Mrs. Bella C. Reardon

After bequeathing certain personal effects to friends, the will of Mrs. Bella C. Reardon, dated May 8, 1913, leaves her remaining estate to Joseph R. Fague, named as executor. He is directed to hold it in trust to sell and distribute the proceeds. Among those to share in the distribution are Elizabeth Belle LaSalle, Denver, Col., $600; Clara Eleanor Leech, this city, $300; Emma Lucas of this city, $600; the Mount Vernon Place M.E. Church, $50. The rest is to go to the treasurer of Federal Lodge, No. 1, F.A.A.M., of this city, of which her husband, George W. Reardon, was a member, "to show my appreciation of their many acts of kindness to me since his death."