Funeral of Frederick Ringgold

The funeral of the late Frederick Ringgold, who died on Monday, took place from his late residence at 4 o'clock yesterday. The services were private. Deceased was one of the oldest of the District's citizens, being 82 years of age at his death. For over fifty years he lived in this city, having been in the government employ for about thirty-five years. He has been unable to perform any labor for the past two years. He has lived for a long time with his son-in-law, Mr. Arthur Browning, a practicing attorney.

He leaves a family of one son here in government employ and two daughters, one of whom lives in Chicago, and the other is the wife of Mr. Browning.
