

Winfield S. Robey

(- 19 Jul 1879)

Robey. July 19, 1879 at the residence of W.H. Glascott, No. 436 M street northwest, Winfield Scott Robey, aged 31. Notice of funeral in Sunday papers.

The Evening Star, July 19, 1879

Mr. Winfield S. Robey, proprietor of Wall's Bazaar since the death of Mr. Wall, some three years since, died this morning at 2:30 o'clock, at the residence of his sister, on M street, between 4th and 5th streets northwest. He was the son of the late Edward Robey, and was quite a successful businessman, being noted for integrity in all his transactions. He leaves a wife and one child.

The Evening Star, July 23, 1879

The Funeral of Winfield Scott Robey (late of the firm of Spates & Robey) took place yesterday afternoon, and Rev. A. Holmead conducted the services. The interment was made at the Congressional Cemetery. Messrs. A.T. Whiting, E. Moses, Washington Naylor, John M. Young, James Talty and Charles Hughes were the pall-bearers.