

Seth Robinson

(- 5 Oct 1822)

The National Intelligencer, October 10, 1822

In this city on the 5th inst., Mr. Seth Robinson, aged about 32 years. He was a native of Maine but emigrated to this place many years since. He embraced the Christian religion at an early period in his life and lived in happy enjoyment of the same till he was called home. It will not be deemed by those who knew him best any exaggeration to say that he justly ranked amongst the best of men. He has left a disconsolate widow and two children to mourn their irreparable loss.

His languishing head is at rest
Its thinking and aching are o'er
His quiet immovable breast
Is heav'd by affliction no more.
