

Andrew A. Rock

(1854 - 28 Jan 1927)

Rock. Friday, January 28, 1927 at 11:20 p.m. at his residence, 611 6th street southwest, Andrew A. Rock, aged 72 years, beloved husband of Margaret E. Rock. Funeral from his late residence Monday, January 21 at 2 p.m. Friends and relatives invited. Interment at Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, January 29, 1927, p. 7

Andrew A. Rock, 72, Dies of Long Illness

Foreman of Printing Office of Railway Mail Service for More Than 50 Years

Printing Foreman Dead

ANDREW A. ROCK.

Andrew A. Rock, 72 years old, former foreman of the printing force of the railway mail service, in which he was employed for more than half a century, died at his home, 611 Sixth street southwest, last night after a long illness.

Born in this city, Mr. Rock learned the printer's trade on the old Republican newspaper, formerly published in Georgetown. He had been a member of Local No. 101 of the Typographical Union for 53 years. He also was past grand chancellor and a charter member of Capitol Lodge of the Knights of Pythias.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret E. Rock; five sons, George, Lewis, Joseph, William and Raymond Rock; three daughters, Mrs. Dollie B. Crawford, Mrs. Emma Trusheim and Mrs. Margaret Chisholm; a sister, Mrs. Thomas F. Holden; 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be conducted at his late residence Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Edgar F. Bogus will officiate. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.