Mrs. Rock Buried

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Rock, 76 years old, a lifelong resident of Washington, who died suddenly at her home, 611 Sixth street southwest, were held from the residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Burial was in the Congressional Cemetery.

Mrs. Rock, wife of the late Andrew A. Rock, was well known in the Southwest section for her charitable work, having long engaged in welfare activity and practical nursing. In 1923 she celebrated her fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Besides a brother, Joseph W. William, Mrs. Rock is survived by five sons and three daughters. They are: William Joseph, Lewis and George Rock, Mrs. Dolly B. Crawford, Mrs. Emma Truesheim and Mrs. Margaret Chisholm, all of Washington. Another son, Raymond Rock, resides at Lawson, Mo.
