

Frederick S. Roe

(- 12 Oct 1890)

Roe. Suddenly on Sunday, October 12, 1890 at 1:45 p.m., Frederick S., beloved son of Maria and David A. Roe aged 22 years 6 months. Funeral on Tuesday, October 14, from his late residence, 111 10th street northeast at 2:30 p.m.

The Evening Star, November 14, 1890, p. 10

A Month of Suicides

Seven Cases of Self-Destruction Here in October

... Frederick Roe was the next victim, and he did the last act of his life two days later than the old soldier. He took a dose of cyanide of potash and medical skill was of no avail. He left a letter behind him for his bereaved relatives to read so that they might know why the deceased was tired of life. The other two left no written evidences.