The National Intelligencer, June 7, 1842

In Alexandria, on Sunday afternoon, at the residence of Captain Joseph Smoot, of the U.S. Navy, Mrs. Mary Rose, wife of the late Captain Robert Rose, of the U.S. Navy.

Her godly walk when in health, her patience and resignation in sickness and the hour of death, give to her weeping friends the blessed and comfortable assurance that she has left this world of sorrow and sin in hopes of a blessed immortality, to join the angelic host of heaven in the never-failing song of redeeming love.

Her remains will be received at the steamboat wharf this afternoon, at half past three o'clock, and thence conveyed to the Congressional cemetery. The friends of her family are requested to attend.
