From Anne Heider Baker: William Joseph Roundtree was born in Maryland, probably in Baltimore. William and Mary are probably his parents. William Joseph was a carpenter and patternmaker most of his life. William Joseph and Martha J. Willett were married in Washington, DC on 22 December 1866 by George V. Leech of the Trinity Methodist Church. They lived in southeast at 1133 7th Street. They had eight children who were all born in Washington, DC.

1. Mary Eugenie (1868-1955) [R145/212] married Dr. Clarence B.S. Adams (1855-1896) [R97-106] and had two children.
2. Blanche (1870-1872) died of rubeola.
3. Nettie (1874-1964) [R146/213] married Joseph W. Bullas (1870-1899) [R146/212]
 - 3.1 Josephine
 - 3.2 Annet (1896-1964) [R146/212]
4. Clara N. (1877-1923) [R145/214]
5. William A. (1881-1967) [R145/214] was an ironworker/wireman and worked for the Bureau of Engraving and the Department of Agriculture. Around 1916, he moved to Cherrydale, Arlington County, Virginia.
6. Lloyd W. (1883-1966) [R145/215] was a machinist. He worked for John A. Gottsmann Co. and lived in Arlington County, Virginia after 1916.
7. Blanche Celestia (1886-?) was baptized in 1889 in the Christ Protestant Episcopal Church. She was a telephone operator. She married Charles T. Conrad.
8. John Edward (1889-?) was baptized in 1889 in the Christ Protestant Episcopal Church. He worked as a machinist for the Capitol and the Washington Navy Yard. Around 1916, John moved to Cherrydale, Virginia.
