Mrs. Mary Rowe Rites To Be Held Tomorrow

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Crampton Rowe, 60, vice president of the Stanton Park Parent-Teacher Association, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Lee funeral home, Fourth street and Massachusetts avenue N.E. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mrs. Rowe died Monday night in Garfield Hospital after an illness of two weeks. She lived with a son, William Henry Rowe, an employe in the Washington Post advertising department, at 646 Lexington place N.E.

She was the widow of William Henry Rowe, sr., a Government Printing Office employe who died in 1934. Since 1933 she had been secretary-treasurer of the Progressive Printing Co. 1220 North Capitol street.

Active in parent-teacher, social service and civic work here for many years, Mrs. Rowe was a past president of the Peabody-Hiton-Carberry Parent-Teacher Association and a life member of the District Congress of Parents and Teachers. She did volunteer social service work with the Children's Bureau during the 1930s.

Mrs. Rowe was a native of the District. In addition to her son she leaves a brother, Willard C. Crampton of Chicago.
