Joseph A. Ryder, Jr., Dies On Way Home

Joseph A. Ryder, jr., 43, of 4424 Chesapeake street N.W., was found dead on the sidewalk in the 1900 block of Florida avenue N.W. late Sunday.

His widow, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Ryder, said Mr. Ryder had attended the baseball game at Griffith Stadium and apparently was on the way home when he was stricken. A death certificate has not yet been issue by the coroner.

A native of Washington, Mr. Ryder was educated at old Business High School and employed for many years as a plumber. Until about two years ago, he was a partner in the J.A. Ryder Plumbing Co. until the death of his father.

Besides his widow, he is survived by three sisters, Miss Kathleen Ryder and Mrs. John B. Miller of Washington and Mrs. Joseph McDonough of New York.

Requiem mass will be said at St. Ann's Catholic Church, 4400 Wisconsin avenue N.W., at 9:30 a.m. Thursday. Burial will be at Congressional Cemetery.
