Albert M. Ryon Dies From Motorcycle Fall

Son of Police Sergeant Had Secured Machine Only a Short Time Ago

Albert M. Ryon, nineteen years old, son of Police Sergt. O.C. Ryon, of the fifth precinct, died at Providence Hospital this afternoon as a result of injuries he sustained last night about 8 o'clock when he was thrown from his motorcycle near Pennsylvania avenue and 30th street southeast.

Last night the young man, who was employed as oiler at the District sewage disposal plant, left his home at 314 1st street southeast, to enjoy a ride in the country. When near Pennsylvania avenue and 30th street his wheel struck a stone and skidded to the side of the road.

Ryon was thrown violently to the road. He sustained a broken collarbone, cuts on his head and internal injuries. J.E. Molton of Pennsylvania avenue and 28th street took the injured man to the hospital.

Sergt. Ryon had opposed the idea of his son getting the motorcycle, saying he feared the young man would meet with a serious accident. The son had had the motorcycle only a short time before he was hurt. Coroner Nevitt gave a certificate of accidental death.
