

Joseph Saxton

(- 26 Oct 1873)

Saxton. Sunday night, Joseph Saxton, General Superintendent of Weights and Measures, U.S. Coast Survey in the 75th year of his age. Funeral from his late residence, 316 New Jersey ave. s.e. (St. Mary's church, A and 3d on Capitol Hill) Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to which the friends of the family are invited.

The Evening Star, October 30, 1873

The Funeral of the late Joseph Saxton, superintendent of weights and measures at the United States Coast Survey office, took place yesterday afternoon, from his late residence on New Jersey avenue southeast. The services were conducted at St. Mark's Memorial chapel, by the pastor, Rev. A. Floridus Steele, after which the cortege proceeded to the Congressional cemetery, where the remains were temporarily deposited in the receiving vault.

The Evening Star, December 30, 1873

The body of the late Professor Saxton of the Coast Survey was yesterday removed from the Congressional Cemetery to Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore and interred in the family lot.