

Camillo Schneider ( - 22 Oct 1928)

---

Schneider, Camillo. On Monday, October 22, 1928, at 6 a.m., at his residence, 1009 G st s.e., Camillo Schneider, beloved husband of the late Victoria Schneider. Funeral from the above residence Wednesday at 11 a.m. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, October 24, 1928, p. 2

Noted Musician Dies At Age of 92 Years

Camillo Schneider Was One Time Assistant Leader of U.S. Marine Band

Camillo Schneider 92 years old, at one time assistant leader of the United States Marine Band and the last one of three brothers, all of whom were noted musicians, died at his residence, 1009 G street southeast, Monday, after a long illness.

One of Mr. Schneider's brother was Louis Schneider, former leader of the Marine Band, while the other was Lorenza Schneider, who became widely known as a musician in New York.

Camillo Schneider, who played cornet, was for a number of years a member of the old National Theater orchestra here and frequently played in concerts after he was 60 years old. It was recalled today that he bore a likeness to Admiral Dewey, and often was mistaken for him.

Mr. Schneider came to this country from Italy and had made Washington his home for the past 60 years.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence today at 11 o'clock. Interment was in Congressional Cemetery.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mamie Prender, and two sons, John and Angelo Schneider, all of this city.