Mrs. Susan Scott, Arthritis Worker

Mrs. Susan G. Scott, 77, who was active in the Arthritis and Rheumatism Association, died at the Washington Hospital Center Monday after a long illness. She lived at 420 Seward Square SE, her childhood home.

Mrs. Scott was a retired clerk for the Veterans Administration. She lived in California for 12 years while her husband, Eugene Scott, worked there. She returned to Washington after his death about 30 years ago.

While in California, she served as historian of the state Arthritis and Rheumatism Association, and was a member of the board of the Washington association.

She leaves a brother, Leonard B. Jay of the home.

Services will be at 11:30 a.m. tomorrow at Lee's funeral home, 4th street and Massachusetts Avenue NW, with burial in Congressional Cemetery

The family requests that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to Arthritis and Rheumatism Association of Metropolitan Washington.
