

West Scott

(- 16 Feb 1862)

The Evening Star, February 17, 1862, p. 3

Another Printer Deceased

Mr. West Scott formerly a printer in the National Era office in this city, but recently a clerk in the Land Office, died yesterday morning at the residence of his father-in-law, Judge Purcell, of hemorrhage of the lungs, said to have been superinduced by the disease contract from exposure to three months service, which the deceased engaged in on the breaking out of the rebellion. His funeral will take place this afternoon, at three o'clock, from the residence of his father-in-law, on Third street between D and E and will be attended by members of the Columbia Typographical Society, to proceed to the Congressional Burial Ground.