George J. Seufferle Dies, Resident 75 Years

Came Here in Boyhood From His Birthplace at Emmitsburg, Md.

Retired at 55

George J. Seufferle died at his home, 511 E street northwest, yesterday in the eighty-eighth year of his age. He had been a resident of this city for seventy-five years.

Funeral services will be held at his late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Edward Mott of the Church of the Advent officiating. Interment will be at Congressional cemetery. Pallbearers will be Bladen Jackson, Lowndes Jackson, William Escavaille, Robert D. Suter, Willis W. Parker and George Emmons.

Mr. Seufferle was one of the pioneer merchants here and was a member of the Rock Creek Park commission appointed in 1891 by the Supreme Court of the District to condemn the land now included in this park.

One daughter, Mrs. Edith Benton, and four grandchildren, Mrs. Helen Escavaille, Misses Louise Seufferle, Mildred and Gertrude Barnes, survive him.

Mr. Seufferle was greatly interested in the German Orphan Asylum and was an honorary member of the board of directors. Mr. Seufferle came to this city when he was still in his teens from his birthplace, Emmitsburg, Md. At the age of twenty-one he was taken into the firm of Jackson Company, grocers, from which he retired at the age of fifty-five.
