The Evening Star, April ?, 1968

Mrs. Helen Sexton, Former Economist With Labor Dept.

Mrs. Helen R. Sexton, 71, a former economist with the Labor Department, died Saturday of cancer at Georgetown University Hospital. She lived at 6408 10th St., Alexandria.

Born Helen V. Rowe in the District, she had spent most of her life in the Washington area except from 1918 to 1931 when she was in the Panama Canal Zone as a government employe. She also operated a dancing school there for four years.

She retired from the Bureau of Labor Statistics in 1962 after 31 years of government service. She had worked primarily with the Consumer Price Index, a bureau publication.

She served in 1917 with the U.S. Employment Compensation Commission.

Mrs. Sexton's husband died some years ago. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Marguerite Lakenan of 5410 Connecticut Ave. NW, and a brother, Paul Rowe of Baltimore.

Mass will be said at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Catholic Church, 5th and H Streets NW, with burial in Congressional Cemetery.
