Funeral of a Fireman

Yesterday afternoon, the Franklin Fire Company paraded to attend the funeral of Mr. George W. Shackelford, deceased, a late esteemed member of that efficient corps of the fire department. The members of the company were in citizen's dress, except the pall bearers, who were in the complete uniform of the company. As the procession moved to the Congressional Cemetery the bells of the various companies were tolled as the line reached and passed the respective engine houses on the route.
