Charles P. Sherzer Dies; Retired Meat Dealer

Charles P. Sherzer, 89, retired meat dealer and lifelong resident of Washington, died yesterday at his home, 726 Thirteenth street S.E.

Mr. Sherzer as a boy had been employed to drive the cattle into the city to slaughter houses. He began his apprenticeship as a butcher in 1871 at the old John E. Kale Market on M street S.W. and in 1920 opened his own meat store in the Eastern Market.

When he retired, his son, Charles L. Sherzer, took over the business.

Also surviving are two other sons, Alfred L. Sherzer of Washington and William R. Sherzer, Venice, Calif., and four daughters, Mrs. Rose Morton, Mrs. Lottie Bowman, Mrs. Adelaide McFall and Mrs. Evelyn Cranford, all of Washington.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Thomas F. Murray funeral home, 2007 Nichols avenue S.E. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.
