Resident of Capital 60 Years, Succumbs

Mrs. Sarah Shreve, Native of Wales, 81, Had Been in Poor Health Six Months

Mrs. Sarah Shreve, widow of James H. Shreve, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Lyons, 1369 Meridian place.

Mrs. Shreve, who was 81 years old, had been in poor health about six months, having failed to fully recover her strength after an attack of pneumonia last winter.

She became seriously ill again about a month ago and had been in a semiconscious condition for the last two weeks.

Born in Wales, Mrs. Shreve came to Washington about 60 years ago. Death claimed her husband 20 years later.

Besides Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. Shreve is survived by another daughter, Mrs. L.R. Dickerson, and a son, Samuel R. Shreve. Four other children are dead.

Mrs. Shreve will be buried in Congressional Cemetery tomorrow morning, following funeral services at 10 o'clock at her late residence.
