

Harry C. Simpson

( - 5 May 1937)

---

Simpson, Harry C. On Wednesday, May 5, 1937, at his residence, the Sherman Apartments, 15th and L sts. n.w., Harry C. Simpson, beloved husband of Mary A. Simpson and father of Roland C. Simpson and Mrs. John M. Rasely of Arlington, Va. Funeral from the W.W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin st. n.w., on Friday, May 7, at 10 a.m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment private.

The Evening Star, May 5, 1937, p. A10

Star Employee, Is Dead

Harry C. Simpson, 68, veteran employe of The Star, died suddenly last night at his home, 1101 Fifteenth street. Death was believed due to a heart attack or a stroke.

Mr. Simpson, a compositor and copy holder, was a native of this city and began work for The Star in September, 1884. In 1893 he left The Star, returning in 1902. He was a member of Petworth Lodge of Masons and the Artisans.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mary E. Simpson; a son, Roland C. Simpson, this city; a daughter, Mrs. Blanche Rasely, Arlington, Va., and a brother, Walter L. Simpson, this city.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday in Chambers' funeral home 1400 Chapin street. Burial will be private.