Anacostia and Vicinity

The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Simpson, whose death took place suddenly Saturday morning last at the home of her daughter, near Cabin John bridge, Montgomery county, Md., was held yesterday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, from the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Simpson was the widow of James E. Simpson, and was sixty-eight years of age. She was the mother of Mr. James Simpson and Mrs. Purcell, both of this place and it was to the latter's home, at 117 Jefferson street, that the body was removed. Rev. Charles O. Isaac, the pastor of the church, conducted the service. The deceased became a member of the church thirty-two years ago. The pallbearers were Messrs. George W. King, sr., George S. Pyles, James Smith, C.A.J. Williamson, H.W. Eno and J.W. Barse. The remains were interred in Congressional cemetery.
