Funeral of Mrs. Skidmore Will Be Held Tomorrow

She Had Been a Resident of Washington for Over Half a Century

Funeral services for Mrs. Ann E. Skidmore, a resident of South Washington for many years, who died at her home, 301 11th street southwest, yesterday morning, will be held at Ryland M.E. Church at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Skidmore was a native of Virginia and was in her seventy-ninth year. During her residence in South Washington of more than a half century she was a member of Ryland Church and was widely known in church circles as an active Christian worker. She was particularly beloved among the poor and needy of that section of the city, and her charities and benefactions were conspicuous traits of her daily life.

Mrs. Skidmore had witnessed the gradual evolution of old Washington into the present city of beautiful proportions.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Annie L. Powers, and two sons, Jared F. Skidmore and James L. Skidmore.
