Arthur H. Smart, Retired Kansas Ranch Operator

Arthur H. Smart, 75, former cattleman and rancher in Kansas, died yesterday at his home here of a heart attack.

Mr. Smart, who lived at 6519 Allegheny avenue, Takoma Park, Md., moved to the District from Council Grove, Kans., after retiring from his ranch in 1948.

He graduated from Georgetown University Law School in 1911.

Mr. Smart married Irene Virginia Rhine of Howard County, Md., that same year and left for Kansas to open his law practice there. He was persuaded by his father to go into ranching and the two also operated a small crushed rock quarry which supplied stone to the Missouri Pacific Railroad. The firm soon grew into the State's largest.

Since 1948, Mr. Smart has been associated with his son, James A. Smart of Rock Point, Md., in the Capitol Office Supply Co., 1621 L street N.W. Mrs. Smart died in 1954.

An active Mason, Mr. Smart served for many years as chaplain of Congress Lodge No. 37. He was a member of the Albert Pike Consistory and of Capitol Forest 704, Tall Cedars of Lebanon.

Besides his son, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Larsen, of Green River, Wyo.; and two grandsons, Charles Smart, of Rock Point, Md.; and James Larsen, also of Green River, Wyo.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at the S.H. Hines Funeral Home, 2901 Fourteenth street N.W. Burial will be Congressional Cemetery.
