

Clementine Smith

(- 9 Jun 1940)

Smith, Clementine. On Sunday, June 9, 1940, at her residence, 1150 Connecticut ave., Clementine Smith, daughter of the late John A. Smith and Sally Cox Smith. Services at the above address on Tuesday, June 11, at 2 p.m. Interment private.

The Evening Star, June 11, 1940, p. A12

Miss Clementine Smith, Native of District, Dies

Miss Clementine Smith lifelong resident of Washington and the last immediate survivor of an old and prominent family died yesterday after a brief illness at her apartment, 1150 Connecticut avenue N.W. She was a granddaughter of Col. John Cox, once Mayor of Georgetown.

Miss Smith was the daughter of the late John A. Smith and Mrs. Sally Cox Smith. In Washington she is survived by several first cousins, Mrs. Larkin Glazebrook, Mrs. E.E. Whiting, Mrs. Laurence Benet, Mrs. Charles Hume, Miss Lydie Addison, Miss Mary Cox and Miss Eva Cox.

Funeral services were set for 2 p.m. today at the apartment, with burial in Congressional Cemetery.

The Washington Post, June 11, 1940, p. 18

Granddaughter of Georgetown Mayor Dies at 90

Miss Clementine Smith, the last immediate survivor of a family that lived in the District for many years, died yesterday in her apartment at 1150 Connecticut avenue northwest.

Miss Smith, who was believed to have been in her nineties, was born here and had lived here all her life. She was the daughter of John A. Smith and Sally Cox Smith, and a granddaughter of Col. John Cox.

She is survived by the following first cousins, all of Washington: Mrs. Larking Glazebrook, Mrs. E.E. Whiting, Mrs. Laurence Benet, Mrs. Charles Hume, Miss Lydia Addison, Miss Mary Cox and Miss Eva Cox.

Services will be at 2 p.m. today at her apartment. Burial will be at Congressional Cemetery.