

Frank S. Smith (- 30 Apr 1902)

The Evening Star, May 1, 1902, p. 3

Dead Man Identified

Proves to Be Frank S. Smith of This City

The man who died in a Baltimore hospital yesterday has been identified as Frank S. Smith, who had a room at 816 9th street northwest, this city.

He was carried to the hospital several days ago suffering from pneumonia, and said that his name was Frank Delaney. Relatives who were informed of his demise will take charge of the remains.