Mrs. Mary R. Smith Dies

Had Been Resident of District for Eighty Years

Mrs. Mary R. Smith, eighty-two years old, a resident of Washington since infancy, died late yesterday afternoon at her home, 302 North Carolina avenue southeast, following a long illness. She died a few moments after greeting her grandson, George R. Cooksey, private secretary to the Secretary of the Treasury, who returned to Washington yesterday from the west.

Funeral services are to be held at 9 'clock Saturday morning at St. Peter's Church. Interment is to be at Congressional Cemetery.

Mrs. Smith was a native of Maryland. She would have been eighty-three years old on Christmas day. Four children are living -- Mrs. S.V. Cooksey, mother of George R. Cooksey, and James M. Smith, Charles F. Smith and George T. Smith.
