Mrs. Mary Snell Dies

Mrs. Mary C. Snell, eighty-one years old, widow of Rev. M. Porter Snell of this city, and for many years a resident here, died Tuesday. Funeral services were held at the residence of her son, William A. Snell, corner of Hawthorne and Jewett streets northwest, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Walter M. Eagleson, pastor of the Sherwood Presbyterian Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Georg M. Cummings, pastor of the Garden Memorial Church. Interment was in the Congressional Cemetery.

Mrs. Snell was for many years prominent in the work of the local Woman's Christian Temperance Union, having been a trustee in the organization. She was the daughter of the late Gerard Hallock of New Haven, Conn., who was at one time president of the Associated Press and for a long-time editor of the New York Journal of Commerce.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Joseph M. Long of Hyattsville, Md., and Miss Cora L. Snell of this city; four sons, Theodore T., Charles L. and William A. Snell of this city, and Clarence E. Snell of Richmond, Va., also by fifteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
