

John Soeliner

( - 29 Mar 1866)

---

The Evening Star, March 30, 1866

Military and Masonic Funeral

The funeral of 2d. Lieut. John Soeliner, company G, 6th Regiment, 1st Army Corps, took place at three o'clock yesterday afternoon. The deceased was buried with military and Masonic honors. The Masonic ceremonies were performed at the hall, corner of 9th and D streets. His funeral was attended by the lodge of the society of Free Masons, of which he was a member, an escort from the 9th regiment headed by the band of the 8th regiment, 1st Army Corps, and a large number of citizens. The remains were interred in the Congressional Cemetery.