

William Lewis Stant

(- 9 Jan 1919)

Stant. After a short illness, on Thursday, January 9, 1919, at 5:45 p.m., William L. Stant, beloved husband of Louise G. Stant (nee Lang) and beloved son of William L. and Emma Stant (nee Trumbo).

Sleep on, dear one, thy cares are o'er,
Your loving hands can work no more.
We miss you most, who loved you best,
When nights are dark and friends are few.

When you breathed your last farewell
The blow meant more than tongue can tell;
Our home is quite another place
Without the smile on your dear face.

You suffered much, you murmured not
We watched you day by day,
Until at last, with broken hearts,
We saw you pass away.
By His Loving Mother, Father, Sisters, Brother and
Devoted Brother-in-Law, Chas. Bartges

Your busy hands are folded,
Your work on earth is done;
Your troubles are all ended.
Your heavenly crown is won.

If we could see behind the stars
That which is hid from us,
We know we will see you there,
Tenderly watching for us.
By His Loving Wife and Children

Funeral from his late residence, 1105 10th street southeast, Saturday, January 11, at 2:30 p.m. Friends and relatives invited.
